1.1 Children's Rights and Entitlements

Policy statement

- We promote children's right to be strong, resilient and listened to by creating an environment in our setting that encourages children to develop a positive self image, which includes their heritage arising from their colour and ethnicity, their languages spoken at home, their religious beliefs, cultural traditions and home background.
- We actively promote children's rights to be strong resilient and listened to by feeling safe from bullying, illegal practices such as FGM and by addressing inappropriate attitudes and opinions communicated about race, gender and radicalised beliefs and actions.
- We promote children's right to be strong, resilient and listened to by encouraging children to develop a sense of autonomy and independence.
- We promote children's right to be strong, resilient and listened to by enabling children to have the self-confidence and the vocabulary to resist inappropriate approaches.
- We help children to establish and sustain satisfying relationships within their families, with peers, and with other adults.
- We work with parents to build their understanding of, and commitment to, the principles of safeguarding all our children. Information is regularly given to parents to help them understand the issues arising from internet use.
- We believe every child has the right to an education which develops their personality, talent and abilities.
 - Related Policies: 1.2 Safeguarding Children and Child Protection;
1.11 Positive Behaviour
